ANNOUNCEMENT

START OF CLASSES AT THE SCHOOL OF BYZANTINE MUSIC

Dear friends,

The School of Byzantine Music once again opens its doors to welcome you in its 41st year of presence, operation, and service in Great Britain, under the auspices of our Holy Archdiocese and the watchful interest of our Most Reverend Shepherd.

Classes for the new academic year 2026–2027 begin with registrations on Monday, 7 September 2026.

At the School of Byzantine Music of our Holy Archdiocese, you can learn:

1. Byzantine Music
2. Traditional Music
3. Practical Chanting Lessons
4. Liturgics and the Order of our Church's Holy Services
5. European Music
6. Various Instruments

We invite everyone, young and old, to attend Byzantine Music classes and gain a deeper understanding of our Church's musical tradition. With God's grace, our aim is also gradually to help staff the church choir stands of our communities and churches throughout Great Britain.

The School is based in its own premises at:
25a Trinity Road, Wood Green, London N22 8LB

More information is available on our School website: <https://byzantinemusic.co.uk>

You may contact us by email at thyateirabyzantinemusic@gmail.com or by telephone on 020 8881 4740.

Please encourage your children to attend the School of Byzantine Music, so that they may learn our Tradition and the music of our Church.

The School Director,
Protopresbyter Joseph Paliouras
